

Cost of Living Texarkana, USA

Not only is Texarkana USA a great place to live with vibrant neighborhoods and an array of housing opportunities but it is a great bargain as well. The cost of living in the Texarkana area is approximately 10% lower than the national average

The latest ACCRA Cost of Living Index (3rd Quarter 2011) indicates that the Texarkana Metropolitan Statistical Area, is 90.4% of the national area. This index is the most reliable source of city –to- city comparisons of key consumer costs available. Housing is very affordable with those costs being 82.4% of the national average.

Taxes are low relative to other portions of the country. The State of Texas does not have a state income tax and while Arkansas does residents of Texarkana, Arkansas are exempt from that tax.